You can extend your course at CISL, and a revised I-20 will be issued. The visa must be obtained at the U.S. Embassy in your home country before your departure. If you are denied a student visa, you will receive a refund of all prepaid tuition (minus the $150 application fee or other non-refundable fees) when you provide the school a copy of the denial letter from the U.S. Embassy.

If you require an I-20 form, you must provide CISL with documents showing that you have enough money to pay for all of your tuition and living expenses while you are studying at CISL as well as a copy of your passport and your home address. Students taking any 20-lesson per week course and who are requesting an I-20 for a student visa will also need to take either an Afternoon Elective, private lessons, or attend a 1.5 hour Study Hall session each week in order to meet the 18-hour per week minimum requirement for the student visa. There is no extra charge for the 1.5 hour/week Study Hall. Students who choose the Study Hall option will have the designation "Plus" on their confirmation (e.g. "Standard Plus"). Failure to adhere to our minimum 85% attendance policy may result in termination of I-20 and dismissal from the school.
