Adult English Language Programmes

Weekly commencement:
06 November 2023 - 30 December 2024

Look ahead. Speak English to design your bright future wherever you are.

Choose a General or Intensive Group English Course for your daily needs.

You may satisfy your plans and ambitions with English for Specific Purposes top-up courses to excel in your career.

The English Course Collection offers you an eclectic array from highly specialised Absorption English to Club 50+ offers of pleasant, casual social enjoyment and experiences for active senior citizens.

Modern technology provides you with the alternative of studying virtually at the comfort of your own home, but nothing beats the experience derived from a personal classroom and on-site English-speaking locations.

General & Intensive English English at Work

20 to 30 lessons per week
Starts weekly for durations of 1 to 52 weeks

These are the highly recommended, most popular, and appealing courses which enable you to communicate effectively and confidently with anybody whether face-to-face or virtually.

As an adult learner, you will train yourself and improve your fluency and proficiency while discussing topics of your choice and interest guided by your qualified teacher of English.

Linguistically, you will practice the four language skills of speaking, listening, reading, and writing as well as the four language systems of grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, and function, to provide you with a comprehensive insight to articulate English.

You may start on any Monday, but if you are a beginner at CEFR level A1 you start only on the first Monday of every month.

In answer to your personal needs, we propose three types of courses all of which share the same form in the classroom and may be blended with online lessons.

General English

If you desire a refresher course to sharpen your conversation within a guided environment to become more fluent, while enjoying what Malta has to offer, select the General English course of 20 lessons per week for any number of weeks you desire. (ref: GE20).

Intensive English

According to Malta's statistics 70% of all English learners choose Intensive English. This is tangible proof of our high-quality teaching standards. You too will excel if you choose an Intensive English course of 25 or 30 lessons per week, as you cover more English material within each week irrespective of the number of weeks. (ref: GE25, GE30)

English@Work

If you have a double motivation to fulfil, English@Work meets both. For the first 13 weeks you follow the General English course of 20 lessons per week during which you will search, and register, for part-time paid work of up to 20 hours per week. You will study and work in perfect harmony. (ref: WE20)

Become a successful European citizen. Train yourself with Erasmus+ funding. Enhance your intercultural learning opportunities.

Internship

You are keen to put your studies into practice and acquire skills that reflect a diverse cultural reality different from your own. You want an internship placement where your respect and commitment are reciprocated, and you attain your pre-established outcomes.

NSTS Malta provides sustainable internships in nearly every imaginable field of work using its extensive network of small size companies, public institutions, and entities that operate in diverse sectors.

You will receive the personal attention of a Mentor, and together you will set your own training programme that best responds to your work aptitude and disposition. You will target your outcomes, dedicate yourself to attain them, and receive certification.

As a vocational or academic student of at least 17 years of age and with a good CEFR A2 level of English, or, if a graduate a B1 level, you will be working to maximise your interaction and skills development during your internship. If your English level is below A2, you must follow at least a 2-week preparatory course in English (see page 7).

Your NSTS Monitor will virtually discuss your CV and motivation letter to provide you with the most suitable placement and orientation, will introduce you to your internship Mentor, meet you regularly, and support you throughout your stay. You will contribute up to 40 hours of internship service every week.

You will share a twin or triple room in a self-catering apartment with some other five international interns. Alternatively, you may be similarly accommodated at a student residence.

You must always be respectful and friendly, conduct yourself well and clean up your apartment's common facilities after use, applying the agreed to house conditions and demonstrating an exemplary demeanour consistent with the purpose of your learning objective in Malta.

While your airport arrival welcome, return, and first placement-day, transfers are included, you must provide for your own daily transport, meals, and incidentals.
